Annual Honey & Blueberry Festival Coming to Northern Poconos
*Equestrian House© Events Venue to Host Festival
Over Six Weekends from June 18/19 to July 23/24

Wayne County, PA, May 9, 2022 – By the middle of June, the wild blueberries are reaching their peak and bursting with flavor. The sweet and delicious honey from the beehive farm is flowing. Put them together and you have the Inaugural Honey & Blueberry Festival, a family-friendly event taking place at Equestrian House©, a newly-renovated Events Venue built on a former horse farm in the Northern Poconos.

A visit to the festival will add flavor and memories to Father's Day weekend or heading into the July 4th holiday! Admission is FREE. Pick your own wild blueberries. Learn about beehive farming. Trampoline, tennis and basketball courts for the kids, and more!

The festival will take place rain or shine on the following weekends (all dates Sat/Sun) from 11:00am to 5:00pm:

June 18/19	June 24/25	July 2/3
July 9/10 Vendor Weekend	July 16/17	July 23/24

The official festival vendor weekend will take place the July 9/10 with food, commercial and craft vendors, local entertainment and additional activities available for the whole family.

Media Day preview is scheduled for Saturday, May 21, 2022 for members of the press and media.

For information, vendor application, registration, and media inquiries, please visit <https://www.equestrianhousepa.com/honey-blueberry-festival>.

The Honey & Blueberry Festival's Mission

- To promote honey, honey bees and their products, and beekeeping. Through lectures and demonstrations, the crowd can learn about bees and how to keep them healthy. Issues facing the bees include pests, pesticides, diseases, malnutrition, and climate changes
- To recognize, appreciate and celebrate the cultural and economic significance of blueberries and their products
- To foster the education and future of agriculture and agritourism in the Northern Poconos region
- To join as a community, in particular our families and young people, for fun, education and wholesome activities
